We look forward to welcoming
AWEC Dads.

The spouses of our members are called AWEC dads who can host their own meetings as they deem necessary to help with our youth and fundraising efforts. The most supportive AWEC Dads group will be recognized at the Awards Ceremony in October.

The African Women Economic Consortium assembled with 9 women of diverse economic, social and religious backgrounds, to form an AWEC interest group in Lawrenceville GA. After adding additional 11 more members and after 6 months of cohesive camaraderie, they shall become a bona-fide AWEC chapter! Presently, they are Nigerian, Kenyan and Haitian. This AWEC interest group Lawrenceville (AIGL) are wonderfully charming women whose aspiration is to empower women and children and reach out to struggling humanity. We concur that it is our responsibility to reach out to our communities instead of waiting for anyone to solve the pain in Africa and beyond. The evening was full of laughter singing and totally spiritually enriching. This was indeed a beautiful gathering! Welcome aboard our new Gold and Heritage members:

Dr. Uwa Onyioha Osimiri (Nigerian and soon to be a Heritage member), Founder and CEO of AWEC presented a PowerPoint on the mission and objectives of AWEC. She has 3 children, 29, 26, and 18.

Indomitable Chi-Chi Cain (Clementine, Nigerian, Gold), the Regional Director for the Southern States hosted the membership Tea

Poised Christiana Brown (Nigerian, Gold), the Georgia State AWEC Director was present. Christiana has 3 children ages 5, 6 and 8.

Charismatic Natasha David Walker (African American with proud Kenyan roots, Gold) voted the AIGL Director is charming and passionate about our mission. Natasha has 2 children ages 5 and 3.5. Natasha sang a Reverend Kirkland spiritual...well, sort of.

Elegant Mrs. Stella Ofodile (Nigerian, Gold) was delightful. Stella is the mother of 3 children ages 13, 14 and 19 years. Stella sang an enjoyable song in Igbo and the group joined in unison!

Our Heritage member, Oludolapo Adewumi (Nigerian) showed a character guided by spiritual benevolence and was absolutely delightful. Oludolapo has two grown children 29 and 25. She led us with a Yoruba song!

Amiable Fehintola Ezeudu (Nigerian, Gold) the group's Youth Director, appears to be a woman who enjoys working with children and has 4 of her own, ages 14, 11, 6, and 2.

Composed Toroko Fuwa (Nigerian, Gold) showed a side of her that she was glad to display: wit, charm and spiritual. Toroko is the mother of a 6-year-old.

Demure and very pregnant Chantale Fortunat-Manley (Haitian, Gold) charmed us with her high spiritedness and treated us to a French song! Chantale has two children ages 6 and 3.

Charming Amaka Ezigbo (Nigeria, Gold) joined the festive atmosphere. Amaka has two children 7 and 9.

It is never what people call you that determines who you are. It is what you answer to that matters. We are the African Women Economic Consortium, an army made of women, linking hands to lift us up! Although it was dark, the morning had to come. The sun's energy is at high noon to galvanize us forward! Look out world, here we come...its morning time!

Welcome Queens! My Chi honors yours... and so it is!

Dr. Uwa Onyioha-Osimiri
